An evening of Celtic Music with New Time Ensemble and Ireland's Michael Black

Simultaneously traditional and innovative, New Time Ensemble weaves an articulate tapestry from the rugged threads of Irish dance tunes. The band is set to release their new album, "a year in ireland" this May and will be touring the US in June. "New Time Ensemble is an eclectic mix of musical styles and personalities, with Irish traditional music at its heart. The sound is fresh and innovative, yet grounded in the individual practices of each musician. There is creativity and strong musicianship here— check it out!

Michael Black comes from the Black Family, a well known Irish singing family which is headlining for Celtic Colors in Nova Scotia in October, 2011. His self-titled solo album was shortlisted for a Grammy when it was released by Compass records. Michael accompanies himself on guitar and tenor banjo, performing a diverse array of traditional and contemporary songs including humor and satire, songs in Irish ,and an occasional instrumental. tunes. www.michaelblack.info

Our 27th Season begins on September 24, 2011 with Actor/Singer Ronny Cox

Ronny Cox is an artist who wears a variety of hats, but if there is one common thread that pulls it all together it's the "real" person that wears each hat and the warmth his. His musical style is eclectic and he says: "The songs that I write and choose reflect that I pride myself in being able to find great songs and record them, not as covers, but as extensions of what I do as a performer." Ronny Cox tours regularly with his band and at times solo or with Jack Williams. www.ronnycox.com

Great refreshments sold before the show and during intermissions.
