May 1, 2010—Anne Hills and David Roth

An Evening of Folk, Joke and Hope Songs...

Anne Hills has one of the most glorious voices in all of contemporary folk music. She gives songs a life of their own by bringing her own vision to many of the best folk songs being written today. Along with vocals, Anne is noted for being a bit of a comedian, and ease on banjo and harmonica. During her career, she has received numerous honors such as the 2006 Pennsylvania Partner's in the Arts Project for the premier of An Evening of James Whitcomb Riley and Kerrville Music foundations Outstanding Female Vocalist of the Year 1997. www.annehills.com

David Roth strikes many chords, hearts, and minds with his unique songs, offbeat observations, moving stories, sense of the hilarious, and powerful singing and subject matter. As singer, songwriter, recording artist, keynote speaker, workshop leader, and instructor, David has earned top honors at premier songwriter competitions - Kerrville (TX) and Falcon Ridge (NY) - and taken his music, experience, and expertise to a wide variety of venues in this and other countries full-time for more than two decades.
